I have been teaching leadership principles for at least 35 years and a lot of people in the USA and in other countries say to me: "I wish I could do what you do." My answer is usually something like this "No you cannot do what I do but you can do it better than I do."

It's articulating a compelling vision of an achievable future that inspires people and the people around them and they hold themselves and others accountable for pursuing valued goals.

With the leading of the Holy Spirit it's not difficult although along the way you will have difficulty.

That's why I am so excited how God has provided such godly and capable leaders to help OEM spread the Word across the world.

Eric and Melissa Weber and their children, Sage and Seth are changing the shape of Nicaragua for the kingdom.

Keith and Vickie Crowder and their children are reaching out to the abandoned and sometimes abused children and youth.

Former OEM Board of Director Tommy and Marcia Hopson and their two children are going to serve Jesus in Uganda through the IMB.

And now Paul and Angie Schmucker and their four children are stepping way out of their comfort zone and moving to Honduras to work with OEM in January 2014.

Arlene and I are overjoyed with God's answers to our prayers for "laborers" during all these years, but we still pray for long term and even short term missionaries to help us in Costa Rica, El Salvador and other countries. The harvest is ripe.

This month also begins our second round of giving parasite medicine to children up to 12 years old and to help them live a healthy lifestyle through better hygiene. OEM together with the Educational Department and the Health Department of Honduras is in charge of the Parasite Prevention Program (PPP). Pictures will be on Facebook in June.
